

Hey Kids!

Another year has gone by and I am so excited to see you again! I am back on a special, secret assignment for Santa and I'll be staying until Christmas day. I will be reporting back to Santa each night about your behavior.

Make sure you are using your best manners, being helpful and showing kindness to everyone.

Every night when I return from the North Pole, I'll surprise you in a new spot. Make sure not to touch me or I may lose my magic!

Love,
